Jeff Bezos is the founder and CEO of Amazon, and is currently the world's richest man. He has been married to MacKenzie Bezos since 1993, and they have four children.

In January 2019, it was announced that Jeff and MacKenzie were divorcing after 25 years of marriage. Since then, there has been much speculation about who Jeff Bezos is dating.

The most recent rumors suggest that Jeff Bezos is dating Lauren Sanchez, a former news anchor and the ex-wife of Hollywood agent Patrick Whitesell. Sanchez is also a helicopter pilot and has her own production company.

It is unclear how long Bezos and Sanchez have been dating, but it is believed that they started seeing each other sometime after the announcement of his divorce.

Jeff Bezos' girlfriend is Lauren Sanchez, a former news anchor and the current host of So You Think You Can Dance. The two have been dating since early 2018 and are reportedly very happy together. Sanchez is also the mother of three children, two of whom are Bezos' stepchildren.

In January of this year, Jeff Bezos, the founder and CEO of Amazon, announced his divorce from his wife of 25 years, MacKenzie Bezos. Since then, Jeff Bezos has been linked to a number of different women, most notably Lauren Sanchez, a former news anchor and the ex-wife of Amazon's VP of business development, Brad Stone.

Now, it seems that Jeff Bezos may have found himself a new girlfriend, this time in the form of Lauren Sanchez's sister, Nicole. Nicole is a 33-year-old model and actress who has starred in films such as "The Hangover" and "Ted".

Interestingly, Nicole is also friends with Amazon's chief financial officer, Brian Olsavsky. Olsavsky is the one who announced Jeff Bezos' divorce from MacKenzie Bezos on Amazon's earnings call back in January.

So far, there is no word on how serious Jeff Bezos and Nicole Sanchez's relationship is, but it is certainly interesting that the two are now connected through both Amazon and Lauren Sanchez.
