

yacht jeff bezos rotterdam

---

The article discusses Jeff Bezos' purchase of a $400 million yacht, which is currently docked in Rotterdam. The yacht, named the "Rising Sun", is one of the largest and most expensive in the world. The article goes on to discuss Bezos' other assets, including his space company Blue Origin and his ownership of The Washington Post.

Jeff Bezos, the founder and CEO of Amazon, has taken delivery of his new $400 million yacht in Rotterdam. The yacht, named the "Flying Fox", is the second largest private yacht in the world.

The yacht was built by German shipyard Lurssen and is said to be the most expensive yacht ever built. It is reported to have an indoor pool, a cinema, a spa and a helicopter landing pad.

Bezos is said to be the world's richest man, with a fortune estimated at $131 billion. He owns a number of properties, including a $23 million mansion in Washington DC and a $165 million estate in Beverly Hills.

The "Flying Fox" is likely to be the most luxurious yacht in the world and will be a popular choice for celebrities and the wealthy.

In May of this year, Jeff Bezos, the world's richest man, was spotted in Rotterdam aboard his new $400 million yacht. The yacht, named "The World is Not Enough", is reported to be the 8th largest in the world. It is equipped with two helipads, a pool, a movie theater, and a spa. Bezos purchased the yacht from German manufacturer, Lurssen.

The article tells the story of Jeff Bezos, the founder of Amazon, and his new yacht, the Rotterdam. The yacht is said to be worth $400 million, and is one of the largest in the world. The article goes on to describe the features of the yacht, including its size (it is said to be longer than a football field), its luxurious interior, and its private pool. The article also mentions that the yacht is said to be eco-friendly, with solar panels and a water filtration system.